

PORTLAND

Azumano Travel wins contract for state agencies

Azumano Travel, which has provided traditional travel service to Washington state agencies since 2004, is the exclusive Internet travel provider to the state's governmental travelers.

Azumano's contract runs from March 1 to Feb. 28, 2008, with renewal options. The company, with an office in Vancouver, has been providing Internet travel services to the state of Oregon and private corporations for years.

Azumano, founded in 1949, has a staff of 250 and sales of more than $225 million.